SECOND SESSION – 1984

APPENDIX

ADDRESS TO THE NORTH CAROLINA GENERAL ASSEMBLY IN JOINT SESSION BY GOVERNOR JAMES B. HUNT, JR.

Thursday, June 7, 1984

Lieutenant Governor Green, Speaker Ramsey, members of the House and Senate, distinguished guests and my fellow North Carolinians.

Next Monday evening, I will deliver my only commencement address of this year. It will not be before a major college or university, nor before a large high school. Instead, it will be before the 41 seniors of Cape Hatteras School, less than 50 miles from where the first English settlers planted their first colony 400 years ago.

I made the decision to deliver my only commencement address there for both personal and symbolic reasons.

In 1955, I was one of 76 graduating seniors at Rock Ridge High School in Wilson County. I was class Valedictorian, right proud of myself and pretty sure that I was ready to set the world on fire.

That fall, in my first semester at North Carolina State College, I found out differently. I found that my high school education had not prepared me as well as my new friends from Raleigh and Greensboro and Charlotte were prepared. I found out that I was behind, not because I had not worked hard, not because my parents did not care about education — but because of where I was from.

I promised myself then that if I could ever do anything to see that kids from the country, or kids from the wrong side of town, or kids from poor families, could have a better chance — an equal chance — for a better education, I would do it.

So I stand before this General Assembly today and ask you, the elected representatives of the people of North Carolina, to fulfill that hope for the students in a tiny, distant school on the shores of Cape Hatteras and for children in every city and every corner of this state who deserve a decent education, a fair chance to make a success of their lives, and a good job.

This is no ordinary “short budget session” of the General Assembly.

The responsibility for action here surpasses any personal or political agenda we bring to these halls. The people of North Carolina are ready for action for excellence in education. The challenges of a growing economy and a changing world will not wait. The decisions you make during this session will determine whether the next generation will take North Carolina farther than any of us dream, or whether tomorrow will pass us by.

The children of North Carolina deserve a dramatic improvement in their schools, and our generation must meet that responsibility to their generation.

Those who came before us — Governors like Aycock and Sanford, far-sighted Senators and Representatives — met their responsibility. Their wisdom and their courage, again and again over the past three decades, have transformed North Carolina.

Today we are building a new economy based on new technologies. We have combined a tradition of agriculture and manufacturing with the promise of science and technology. We have preserved a small-town way of life and productivity, yet prospered from a big-city vitality.

We have built something special in North Carolina, and we are the envy of the nation. As a place to do business, as a place to live, as a place to raise a family, as a place to visit — North Carolina has emerged literally as the nation's leader.

But a leader cannot be lazy, for other states are nipping at our heels — Tennessee, South Carolina, Virginia. Still others are spurred on to action — California, Texas, Massachusetts. The competition is fierce — for economic growth, for jobs, for the future. Our state and our children can compete with the best — if we give them the kind of education that tomorrow's economy will require. We have good schools today and those who deny that don't know what they are talking about. But we must make them better.

North Carolina can afford to make that investment. We have survived the most serious economic recession of the last 40 years, when 10 percent of our people were out of work. And we did so without cutting essential services to our people or firing state personnel. We did it by dedicated teachers and state employees accepting limited salary increases. Now North Carolina is leading the nation's recovery. Our economic growth — not higher taxes — has generated the capital we need to invest in our schools, our children and our future.

There is widespread agreement throughout our state, indeed a mandate from our people, that we must make this investment in education and that we must make it in a way that will bring strong economic growth to every single area of North Carolina.

To determine just what that requires, I appointed last year a 50-member Commission on Education for Economic Growth — business executives, educators, legislators, school board members, labor leaders, parents, students and dedicated citizens.

They heard from more than 250 people during their hearings across this state. They spent countless hours studying what other states are doing. They received advice from representatives of 32 organizations that have an interest in North Carolina's schools.

I ask you to give their recommendations your serious consideration during this session. And I ask your permission now to have the members of the commission who are present, and its co-chairs Bland Worley and Dick Spangler, to stand so that we might thank them for the contribution they have made to North Carolina.

If we follow their recommendations, many of which are paralleled by the Education Policy Council which will present its main report to you next January, we can make excellent schools the vehicle to give North Carolina unquestioned economic leadership among the states of this nation.

But I caution you: There is no quick fix — no easy road. We must make deep, profound changes in our schools. We must take bold, ambitious strides forward, not timid steps.

We must take action in six areas:

First, we must build a team, a "partnership," of businesses, churches, civic groups and citizens, that is excited about, involved in and committed to improving the schools. And they must have "staying power."

Second, we must reform and strengthen our curriculum so that our children are learning the abilities and skills they need to hold a good job and be good citizens. No more “cotton candy courses” or social promotions. Students should know we have high expectations of them. And a passing report card and a high school diploma should be a guarantee anywhere in our state that essential competencies have been mastered.

Third, we must develop a higher regard for our teachers, recruit the best we can get, train them in the way business trains its best, and pay them like the professionals they are.

Fourth, we must follow up on our nationally acclaimed Primary Reading Program which has virtually eliminated “non-readers” in grades K – 3, by reducing class size to 26 in grades four through six. We should relieve teachers of distracting non-teaching duties and provide them with clerical assistance as soon as possible.

Fifth, we must clearly understand that good principals and superintendents will run good schools. So we must pay them on a level competitive with business and help principals and school administrators develop the management strengths that will inspire and motivate teachers and students alike.

Sixth, we must see that every single child — those who live in the country, those who have special talents, those who have special problems, every single child — has the chance for a good education.

The most expensive investment I am recommending — and the most important — is in the people who teach our children. We must attract the best and the most dedicated people into teaching, and that means paying salaries that are competitive with what those people make in private industry.

So I am recommending for all certified education personnel a 10 percent salary increase, and that you as the Legislature reclassify them up one grade for an additional increase of about five percent. We should aim for a pay scale that offers an experienced and able teacher the chance to make $35,000 a year, or more.

Of equal importance, I am recommending that the State of North Carolina develop a new way of paying teachers. I urge that the 1985 Legislature establish a career development plan to provide extraordinary rewards for extraordinary teachers, not just for reaching the upper levels of seniority, but for reaching the upper levels of competence and effectiveness as well. And I want the word to go out here and now that salaries for the best teachers in the future will compare with the best salaries in other professions.

In addition, one of the recommendations I am making to you is to establish free scholarships for students who want to become teachers, and the State Board of Education is already developing a plan to attract the best students into teaching in the years ahead.

I am recommending that we test students in grades three, six and nine to determine that they have mastered the competencies necessary at that level. If not, students should be held back and provided strong and effective remedial programs, including free summer school, until they have earned promotion.

I recommend that we strengthen vocational programs, math and science laboratories, and that we buy new textbooks and computers.

Dropout prevention programs should be expanded, and an Office of Rural Education created to work on behalf of children who live in remote, rural areas.

Finally, two concerns of parents that have been too often ignored should be addressed squarely. An Office of School Discipline should be created at the state level and modest funds made available to every school district to deal with disruptions and discipline problems. Nine pilot projects are working across North Carolina now. We can and we must make every school safe and conducive to learning.

The men who took the beaches and parachuted behind the lines at Normandy made their sacrifices and were successful for reasons far beyond their ability to read and compute and punctuate correctly. They were committed to certain "values" that this country stood for.

And we must develop plans to incorporate the teaching of positive values in our public schools. Boards of Education should develop materials and methods for teaching these values such as patriotism, responsibility, good citizenship, honesty, courage, compassion and respect for other persons and other cultures, and free enterprise.

This is an ambitious agenda, but it is achievable. As Governor, I urge that you pass every recommendation of the Commission on Education for Economic Growth. This is the year to "seize the future" for North Carolina's schools, but your commitment should not be for this year alone. Many of the recommendations of the Commission are for the next biennium and for the years beyond. Indeed, making our schools excellent, world-competitive is a job for the rest of this decade and through the year 2000.

I will ask that you make other investments in our state's future in this session.

I urge you to enact a seven-part package of compensation and benefits to our loyal state employees:

- A 10 percent cost of living salary increase for active employees.
- A 10 percent cost of living increase for retirees.
- More flexibility and funds for salary adjustments (reclassifications)
- Addition of the 10th step in the State Employees' Salary Increment Program for 1984 - 85.
- Elimination of the salary grade 50 from the State Employees' Salary Schedule.
- Changing the Teachers' and State Employee's Retirement Formula from 1.57 percent to 1.60 percent.
- Recommendation of the reinstatement of the Salary Increment Program in the biennial budget beginning July 1, 1985, in effect reinstating the merit system. (This budget will go to the printer in November or early December of 1984.)

We must pass a Clean Water Budget to protect North Carolina's rivers, streams and lakes against pollution.

I urge that we improve our juvenile correction programs and that we extend statewide our "workfare" program that has proved effective in getting people off of welfare rolls and into paying jobs.

Let me conclude with a personal word to the members of this General Assembly.

It has been my honor and privilege over the past 12 years to serve with members of this body, past and present.

During my eight years as Governor we have had a time of challenge and change. We have had to ride out storms of recession and inflation, of political reaction and political renewal. I'm proud that in the beginning of my first year as Governor, we had a beginning credit balance of $68.5 million. Today, we enter our eighth year with a credit balance of $225 million. And we have enacted no broad-based tax increases.

Our accomplishments in economic growth, high technology, human development, education, and the preservation of our natural resources have been impressive, and we have made North Carolina clearly one of the leading states, not just of the South, but of the nation.

Yes, we've had our disagreements. And we will always have those who criticize what we did yesterday, doubt what we are doing today and question what we will be tomorrow.

But North Carolina has cast its lot with the future. We have faced tomorrow with hope — not with fear, with courage — not with hesitation, with belief in ourselves and in each other — not with doubt.

That is the spirit that has prevailed in these halls, in the hearts and minds of the men and women who work and serve here. And it is particularly the driving spirit behind two of the finest leaders with whom it has been my honor to serve here: Lieutenant Governor Jimmy Green and Speaker of the House Liston Ramsey.

That, my friends, is the spirit that has moved North Carolina forward for 400 years.

For myself and for my state, I give thanks to God for the wisdom and the courage and the vision that has walked in these halls. And I give special thanks for you, the men and women with whom it has been my privilege to serve and whose trust and friendship I shall cherish as long as I live.

Thank you.

CONFERENCE REPORT

H. B. 110, A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE COMMITTEE ON NEW OCCUPATIONAL AND PROFESSIONAL LICENSING BOARDS TO ASSESS PROPOSALS TO LICENSE NEW OCCUPATIONS AND PROFESSIONS ACCORDING TO CRITERIA AND PROCEDURES SPECIFIED HEREIN.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

Section 1. Chapter 120 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new Article to read:

"ARTICLE 17.

"Review of Proposals to License
New Occupations and Professions.

"§ 120-124. Findings and purpose. — The General Assembly finds that the number of licensed occupations and professions has substantially increased and that licensing boards have occasionally been established without a determination that the police power of the State is reasonably exercised by the establishment of such licensing boards. The General Assembly further finds that by establishing criteria and procedures for reviewing proposed occupational and professional boards, it will be better able to evaluate the need for new licensing boards. To this end it is the purpose of this Article to assure that no new licensing board shall be established unless the following criteria are met:

(1) The unregulated practice of the profession or occupation can substantially harm or endanger the public health, safety or welfare, and the potential for such harm is recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;

(2) The profession or occupation possesses qualities that distinguish it from ordinary labor;

(3) Practice of the profession or occupation requires specialized skill or training;

(4) A substantial majority of the public does not have the knowledge or experience to evaluate whether the practitioner is competent; and

(5) The public is not effectively protected by other means.

“§ 120-125. Definitions. — As used in this Chapter:

(1) ‘Assessment report’ means a report that initially describes the need for and the fiscal impact of a new licensing board.

(2) ‘Committee’ means the Legislative Committee on New Occupational and Professional Licensing Boards.

(3) ‘Licensing’ means a regulatory system that requires persons to meet certain qualifications before they are eligible to engage in a particular occupation or profession.

(4) ‘Supplementary report’ means a report that assesses the changes proposed by an amendment or committee substitute which would alter a legislative proposal to create a new occupational licensing board and for which an assessment report has already been prepared.

“§ 120-126. Assessments of proposed occupational and professional licensing boards. — (a) Every legislative proposal introduced in the General Assembly after the effective date of this act proposing (1) the establishment of an occupational or professional licensing board, or (2) a study of the need to establish an occupational or professional licensing board shall have attached to it, at the time of its consideration by any committee of either house of the General Assembly, an assessment report which shall describe the need for the proposed occupational or professional licensing board. Assessment reports shall be attached to the original of each legislative proposal to establish a new licensing board which is reported favorably by any committee of either house of the General Assembly, but shall be separate therefrom, shall be clearly designated as assessment reports, and shall not constitute any part of the expression of legislative intent proposed by the formation of a licensing board.

(b) If the proposal to establish an occupational or professional licensing board is first contained in a legislative proposal, the sponsor shall present a copy of the legislative proposal to the Legislative Committee on New Occupational and Professional Licensing Boards which shall prepare an assessment report. If the proposal is not in the form of a legislative proposal, the person or organization seeking to establish an occupational or professional licensing board may obtain an assessment report from the Committee only if a legislator requests such report.

(c) Assessment reports shall be prepared and returned to the requesting legislator as soon as possible and not later than 60 days after the Committee receives the request, provided that if the volume of requests makes preparation of all such reports impossible within that time, the Committee may extend the time for preparation of any report to a maximum of 90 days from the time the request is received. Supplementary reports shall be prepared and returned to the appropriate committee chairman or sponsor or requesting legislator not later than 30 days after the Committee receives the request. The Committee shall not consider any request until it has received the information required by G. S. 120-127(a).

(d) The Committee shall make all reports, including supplementary reports, available to all members of the General Assembly. At least one copy of all preliminary and final reports shall be kept in the Legislative Library for public inspection.

(e) All assessment reports shall contain an evaluation of the proposed licensing board in terms of clarity, conciseness, conformity with existing statutes and general principles of administrative law, and specificity of the delegation of authority to promulgate rules and set fees.

“§ 120-127. Procedures and criteria to be used in preparation of assessment reports. —

(a) The Legislative Committee on New Occupational and Professional Licensing Boards shall conduct an evaluation of the need for each new licensing board.

If a legislator or other person or organization is seeking to establish a new occupational or professional licensing board, that legislator or other person or organization shall have the burden of demonstrating to the Committee that the criteria listed in G. S. 120-124 are met, and shall furnish the Committee additional information to show:

- (1) That the unregulated practice of the occupation or profession may be hazardous to the public health, safety, or welfare;
- (2) The approximate number of people who would be regulated and the number of persons who are likely to utilize the services of the occupation or profession;
- (3) That the occupational or professional group has an established code of ethics, a voluntary certification program, or other measures to ensure a minimum quality of service;
- (4) That other states have regulatory provisions similar to the one proposed;
- (5) How the public will benefit from regulation of the occupation or profession;
- (6) How the occupation or profession will be regulated, including the qualifications and disciplinary procedures to be applied to practitioners;
- (7) The purpose of the proposed regulation and whether there has been any public support for licensure of the profession or occupation;
- (8) That no other licensing board regulates similar or parallel functions;
- (9) That the educational requirements for licensure, if any, are fully justified; and
- (10) Any other information the Committee considers relevant to the proposed regulatory plan.

The Committee shall adopt an appropriate form for use by applicants. The form shall contain a list of questions to be completed by the person or organization requesting the assessment report and a copy of this Article.

(b) In preparing an assessment report with respect to a legislative proposal to establish a new occupational or professional licensing board the Committee shall consider, but shall not be limited to considering, the factors listed in subsection (a). The report shall analyze the effects of the new licensing board and shall include the Committee's recommendation on whether the General Assembly should approve the new licensing board. The Committee shall make specific findings in its report on each of the following:

- (1) Whether the unregulated practice of the profession or occupation can substantially harm or endanger the public health, safety or welfare, and whether the potential for such harm is recognizable and not remote or dependent upon tenuous argument;
- (2) Whether the profession or occupation possesses qualities that distinguish it from ordinary labor;
- (3) Whether practice of the profession or occupation requires specialized skill or training;
- (4) Whether a substantial majority of the public has the knowledge or experience to evaluate the practitioner's competence; and
- (5) Whether the public can be effectively protected by other means.

(c) The Committee shall furnish a preliminary copy of the final assessment report to the requesting legislator at least 10 days before the final report is released. The requesting legislator shall have an opportunity to respond to the Committee draft. The Committee shall consider all such responses in the preparation of its final report.

(d) If the Committee recommends against licensure, it may suggest alternative measures for regulation of the occupation or profession.

"§ 120-128. Hearings by Legislative Committee on New Occupational and Professional Licensing Boards; final action by Committee. — (a) Before submitting an assessment report the Committee may, in its discretion, hold one or more public hearings in the Legislative building.

(b) When assessment reports involving the same or similar occupations or professions are pending before the Committee, the Committee may consider jointly any or all of the matters to be addressed by the reports.

"§ 120-129. Legislative Committee on New Occupational and Professional Licensing Boards. — (a) The Legislative Committee on New Occupational and Professional Licensing Boards is created to consist of a Chairman and eight members, four Senators appointed by the President of the Senate, four members of the House of Representatives appointed by the Speaker of the House and the Chairman to be appointed as provided herein. The President of the Senate shall appoint a Senator to be Chairman of the Committee who shall serve until the convening of the General Assembly in 1985.

(b) The Speaker of the House shall appoint a member of the House of Representatives as Chairman upon the convening of the General Assembly in 1985 who shall serve until the organization of the General Assembly in 1987. Thereafter the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House shall alternate the appointment of the Chairman to serve during each biennial session of the General Assembly. The Chairman may vote only in the event of a tie vote. The members of the Committee shall likewise serve biennial terms. If the Office of Chairman or any member shall become vacant, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term by the authority making the initial appointment. Five members shall constitute a quorum of the Committee.

(c) The Chairman and members of the Committee, while serving on the business of the Committee, are performing legislative duties and are entitled to the subsistence and travel allowances to which members of the General Assembly are entitled when performing legislative duties if and when authorized by the Legislative Services Commission, and may meet with such approval whenever there is a request for an assessment report. The Committee is authorized to use the facilities of the State Legislative Building and Legislative Office Building. Clerical and professional staff shall be provided by the Legislative Services Commission."

Sec. 2. This act shall become effective August 1, 1984, and shall expire January 1, 1987.

H. R. 1477, A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO HONOR THE FIFTIETH ANNIVERSARY OF THE GREAT SMOKY MOUNTAINS NATIONAL PARK, AND HONORING FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT FOR HIS ROLE IN ESTABLISHING THE PARK.

Whereas, the year 1984 will mark the 50th Golden Anniversary of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park and will begin the second half of a century of one of the world's great sanctuaries of wilderness area remaining today much as it was when this nation was first settled; and

Whereas, the first 50 years of the Park's existence have generated national recognition for the half-million acres in North Carolina and Tennessee known as the Great Smokies, and the Park has emerged as the most visited national park in the entire United States and the largest wilderness area in the east; and

Whereas, more than eight million visitors yearly enjoy more varieties of plant and animal life than in any other preserve in the Western Hemisphere, including the largest block of virgin timber on earth; and

Whereas, history indicates that the first public suggestion for the establishment of the Park is credited to The Reverend C. D. Smith of Franklin, North Carolina, in the 1880's and

Whereas, the General Assembly in 1893, by resolution, requested the members of the U.S. Congress to "use their influence for the establishment of a national park in western North Carolina"; this resolution being the first governmental action of record favoring the creation of a park in the Great Smoky Mountains; and

Whereas, a movement arose in the 1920's to promote a national park in the Great Smokies and a State commission, Great Smoky Mountains, Inc., was formed to work in conjunction with a similar commission in Tennessee; and

Whereas, the movement was met with many obstacles, including private ownership of the lands, the shortage of purchase money to acquire the lands and the lack of recognition needed to make the Park worthy of admission into the select company of established national parks; and

Whereas, Congress enacted legislation in 1926 that would authorize the Great Smoky Mountains National Park to be protected and administered by the National Park Service as soon as North Carolina and Tennessee officially deeded 150,000 acres for the Park; and

Whereas, intensive fund-raising campaigns were waged in both states, and much enthusiasm was generated by young and old to establish a national park close to home; and

Whereas, the General Assembly enacted legislation in 1927 to provide for the acquisition of land in the Great Smokies and to authorize the issuance of bonds for two million dollars to purchase the land; and

Whereas, although the total Park fund continued to grow, it was estimated that an additional five million dollars would be needed to assure the Park's success and many supporters began to doubt the reality of the Park's future; and

Whereas, after several efforts to obtain the funds were unsuccessful, Mr. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., made a gift of five million dollars to the project from the Laura Spelman Rockefeller Foundation, established earlier by John D. Rockefeller, Sr., as a memorial to his wife; and

Whereas, "the gift that saved the Park" was made in 1928, and over the years Rockefeller's interest in the Park project grew as his personal visits and community acquaintances increased; and

Whereas, extensive negotiations and lawsuits dotted the history of the acquisition of some 6,600 tracts of land including claims of individuals who thought they owned portions of those tracts; and

Whereas, because the money needed was insufficient to complete the land purchases since property values had steadily increased, President Franklin D. Roosevelt announced in August 1933 an allotment of over $1.5 million to complete the project; and

Whereas, on June 15, 1934, Congress authorized full establishment and development of the Park as one of the nation's 13 national parks, and this date marks the official birth of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park; and

Whereas, for the past 50 years, visitors to the Park have enjoyed 1400 varieties of flowering plants, 2200 other plants, 400 animal species not including insects and microorganisms, and 150 species of trees, more species of trees than in any other national park or in all of Europe; and

Whereas, the Park has been designated by the United Nations as an International Biosphere as a part of an international system of reserves for conservation, research and monitoring; and

Whereas, while western parks were carved out of the public domain, the Great Smoky Mountains National Park is unique because it was a gift from the people of North Carolina and Tennessee, created out of privately-owned lands; and

Whereas, in this, the year of the Park's Golden Anniversary, the General Assembly leads the citizens of this State in an honorary salute to the "showcase of natural beauty," the Great Smoky Mountains National Park;
Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House:

Section 1. The House of Representatives of North Carolina pauses to recognize and honor the first 50 years of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park.

Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 1519, A HOUSE RESOLUTION URGING THE UNITED STATES OLYMPIC COMMITTEE TO HOLD THE NATIONAL SPORTS FESTIVAL IN NORTH CAROLINA IN EITHER 1986 or 1987.

Whereas, the National Sports Festival is an activity of the United States Olympic Committee and is now the premier athletic event in the United States; and

Whereas, the National Sports Festival is the showcase of talent for America's athletic hopefuls for the Pan American and Olympic Games; and

Whereas, the Festival promotes amateur sports and the development of youth and tests the abilities of athletes over a ten-day period in July or August of each non-Olympic year, affording athletes the opportunity to compete in thirty-three sports of the Pan American and Olympic games; and

Whereas, since the efforts of University of North Carolina Professor Eben Alexander with the first modern-day Olympics of 1896, the residents of North Carolina have long followed and promoted amateur athletics, by being deeply involved in and supportive of a wide range of competitive sports, and by producing some of the best athletes in the United States and the world, such as James Frances Thorpe of the 1909 Rocky Mount Railroaders Baseball Team; and

Whereas, North Carolina has some of the finest athletic facilities in the nation, particularly in its Research Triangle area of Raleigh, Durham, and Chapel Hill, where nine colleges and universities are located which are equipped with the best and most efficient accommodations and facilities for sports activities, and where some of the country's finest athletes choose to enroll; and

Whereas the citizens of North Carolina accept with great pride the challenge of hosting the National Sports Festival, the thousands of participating athletes and officials, and the many more thousands of visitors who would attend this prestigious event;
Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The House of Representatives of North Carolina hereby respectfully requests the United States Olympic Committee to hold the National Sports Festival in the Research Triangle area of this great State in either 1986 or 1987, not only to further the cause of competitive sports for the youth of our nation, but to share with athletes, officials and visitors the high quality of life we enjoy in the great North State.

Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 1785, A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND WORK OF MR. SIDNEY MEREDITH WEAVER BY DESIGNATION OF THE CITY OF LEXINGTON AS THE HICKORY-COOKED BARBECUE CAPITAL OF PIEDMONT NORTH CAROLINA.

Whereas, the late Mr. Sidney Meredith Weaver was born on July 6, 1868, and died in December of 1949; and

Whereas, Mr. Weaver first served hickory-cooked barbecue for his friends and relatives in his tobacco barn at his farm in Davidson County; and

Whereas, when Mr. Weaver's culinary innovation became popularly recognized in Davidson County, he moved into the City of Lexington at the corner of Center and Greensboro Streets where now the City Hall stands and started the first barbecue place; and

Whereas, Mr. Weaver's barbecue place became a popular gathering spot for good food and camaraderie; and

Whereas, Mr. Weaver's tradition has been continued and expanded in the City of Lexington which has more barbecue restaurants per square mile than any other in the State; and

Whereas, in Lexington following the custom of Mr. Weaver, pork shoulders are cooked slowly and lovingly over a hickory fire; and

Whereas, the pork is then chopped or sliced and flavored with piquant sauces the recipes of which have been handed down from generation to generation; and

Whereas, this ambrosia is then served with coleslaw and delicious hush puppies which are known to be the perfect accompaniment to all Southern meals; and

Whereas, North Carolinians and visitors to this State have for years become enamored of this exceptional regional fare begun by Mr. Weaver and recognized by Mr. Craig Claiborne in the New York Times on April 25, 1984; and

Whereas, October 27, 1984, is the date of the first Annual Lexington Barbecue Festival;
Now, therefore,
Be it resolved by the House:

Section 1. The 1983 North Carolina House of Representatives honors the life and work of Mr. Sidney Meredith Weaver and recognizes his significant contribution to Southern cuisine in designating the City of Lexington as the Hickory-Cooked Barbecue Capital of Piedmont North Carolina. The House of Representatives urges all citizens to savor of the culinary delights awaiting them in Lexington.

Sec. 2. The Secretary of State shall transmit certified copies of this resolution to Mrs. Willie Harris, Mr. Weaver's niece, and to the City Council of the City of Lexington.

Sec. 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 1735, A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO URGE THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY TO MAINTAIN THE WATER LEVELS OF LAKES SANTEETLAH AND FONTANA AT A CONSTANT LEVEL, AND TO HONOR FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT FOR HIS ROLE IN ESTABLISHING THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY.

Whereas, in April 1933, President Franklin D. Roosevelt sent a letter to Congress urging it to create the Tennessee Valley Authority and to charge it "with the broadest duty of planning for the proper use, conservation, and development of the natural resources of the Tennessee River drainage basin for the general social and economic welfare of the nation"; and

Whereas, as a result, the first and most spectacular of the New Deal reform measures was the creation of the Tennessee Valley Authority in May 1933; and

Whereas, the Tennessee Valley Authority improved five existing dams and constructed twenty new ones, bringing a higher standard of living to the Tennessee Valley; and

Whereas, Tennessee Valley Lakes Santeetlah and Fontana are an important asset not only to Graham County but to all of Western North Carolina; and

Whereas, Lakes Santeetlah and Fontana attract tourists, naturalists, and sporting people to Graham County, but the fluctuation of the levels of these lakes has discouraged such visitors; and

Whereas, maintenance of a constant level in Lakes Santeetlah and Fontana during the recreation season, May through October, each year would enhance Graham County and all of Western North Carolina; and

Whereas, the Graham County Chamber of Commerce has actively pursued the establishment of constant lake levels for Santeetlah and Fontana;
Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The House of Representatives of North Carolina expresses its support for the efforts of the Graham County Chamber of Commerce to have established constant water levels on Lakes Santeetlah and Fontana.

Sec. 2. The House of Representatives of North Carolina urges the Tennessee Valley Authority to maintain the water levels of Lakes Santeetlah and Fontana at a constant level during the recreation season each year.

Sec. 3. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

H. R. 1800, A HOUSE RESOLUTION TO HONOR AMERICAN SOLDIERS KILLED, MISSING IN ACTION, AND TAKEN PRISONER OF WAR AND TO ENDORSE THE DESIGNATION OF JULY 20, 1984, AS NATIONAL P.O.W./M.I.A. RECOGNITION DAY BY ACT OF CONGRESS.

Whereas, the United States has fought in many wars;

Whereas, thousands of Americans who served in such wars were captured by the enemy and are missing in action;

Whereas, American prisoners of war were subjected to brutal and inhuman treatment by their enemy captors in violation of international codes and customs for the treatment of prisoners of war and many such prisoners of war died from such treatment;

Whereas, it is uncertain whether those Americans missing in action are alive or dead and such uncertainty has caused their families to suffer acute hardships;

Whereas, the sacrifice of American prisoners of war and Americans missing in action and their families are deserving of national recognition; and

Whereas, the United States Congress has designated July 20, 1984, as National P.O.W./M.I.A. Recognition Day and has authorized and requested the President of the United States to issue a proclamation calling upon the people of the United States to observe such day with appropriate ceremonies and activities;

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

Section 1. The House of Representatives of North Carolina pauses to honor the sacrifices of American prisoners of war and Americans missing in action and to honor the suffering of their families and endorses the designation of July 20, 1984, as National P.O.W./M.I.A. Recognition Day by Act of Congress.

Sec. 2. This resolution is effective upon adoption.

ADDENDUM

It will be noted that a number of bills and resolutions passed second reading and then were read a third time on the same day.

Rule 41(b) states:

No bill shall be read more than once in the same day without the concurrence of two-thirds (2/3) of the members present and voting.

In order to comply with this Rule, no bill which has passed its second reading is read a third time except:

- (1) When a member moves that the Rule be suspended, and this motion carries by at least a two-thirds vote of the members present.
- (2) When the Chair determines that there is no objection from any member present. This constitutes unanimous consent of those members present that Rule 41(b) be suspended.

In these cases, the bill is read a third time.
